

Frail older people: Can Rehabilitation assist?

This talk outlines the spectrum of frailty to disability and touch points along the spectrum where strategies and interventions may have a positive impact. The multi-dimensional nature of frailty and interconnections with mental health outcomes will be a focus for suggesting potentially successful strategies. Research examples will be used to illustrate points made.